1. Issue Date/Issuer

This Target Market Determination (TMD) is issued on 13 November 2021 by Capital Dynamics (Australia) Ltd ACN 129 846 260 AFSL 326283 ("CDAL").

2. Purpose and Contents of this Target Market Determination (TMD)

This TMD applies to the following registered managed investment schemes issued by CDAL:

i Capital Asia-Pacific ex-Japan BTB ARSN 646 553 246 ("Fund")

This TMD gives prospective retail clients and distributors an understanding of the class of consumer for which this product has been designed and intended. It should be read in conjunction with the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) of the Fund, which is also available on our website at www.capitaldynamics.com.au.

The TMD is based on a formulation of what we have assessed, on information available to us currently, to be the likely needs, financial circumstances and objectives that generally describe our intended retail client market for this product. However, please note that this document does not provide personal advice, and does not take into account the needs, circumstances and objectives of any individual client (or prospective client) in any respect. As always, we recommend that you obtain advice from a licensed professional to ascertain whether this product is suitable for your specific needs.

3. What are the Key Attributes of our managed investment schemes?

The following table details the key attributes and features of the products covered by this TMD, that you need to understand when you consider investing in our registered managed investment schemes.

4. What are the likely financial objectives, needs and circumstances of retail clients in our Target Market?

CDAL has determined that this product is generally suitable for clients who have a medium-high risk tolerance who are seeking to generate income as primary consideration, with some capital growth as secondary consideration over a medium-long term investment horizon, through exposure to Asia-Pacific ex-Japan equities, fixed income and cash/cash equivalents products, and can tolerate short term volatility and fluctuations in returns.

Clients who may suit this product would have a secure income, which exceeds their expenses, together with a significant level of savings, and possibly already hold property or other investments in a diversified portfolio.

We have determined that this product and its key attributes are likely to be consistent with such needs, circumstances and objectives, on the basis that surplus savings should generally be invested in accordance with one's risk profile and life stage, to generate passive income, build wealth and achieve portfolio diversification to manage investment risk. This product is designed for consumers who are looking for an investment which accesses research expertise, provides exposure to a range of listed shares globally and generates modest income.

5. What are the class of retail clients which fall within the Target Market of this product/these products?

CDAL has formulated a set of criteria to assist retail clients in determining whether our MIS products may be suitable for their financial needs, circumstances and/or objectives. We have designated certain eligibility criteria to ensure that only retail clients who meet these criteria, will utilise or invest in our products. These criteria have been derived from our assessment of what are the likely needs, circumstances and objectives of our target market, undertaken on a best efforts basis, and do not nor cannot cover every individual's particular circumstances.

Eligibility threshold	This product IS appropriate for persons who:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Persons must have a secure income, comfortably in excess of their expenses and commitments; * Persons must have savings in excess of A$5,000. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Have or are building a diversified portfolio of investments; * Have a medium-high risk profile ie can withstand short term volatility and losses, whilst investing with a long-term view; * Are seeking to generate income as primary consideration and capital growth as secondary consideration. * Would be comfortable to invest their capital for a suggested period of five years.

CDAL has considered that the product, including its key attributes, is appropriate for the target market identified herein, including the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of consumers in the target market.
